

Whitebird Camp

ADDRESS AT CAMP IS: 960 Heckman Ranch 6 Lane, White Bird ID 83554

FROM LEWISTON:

At Lewiston airport parking lot head north a few blocks until you come to Bryden Avenue, take a right and go east on Bryden about a mile until you come to Thain road, take a left and go north along thain, after a few miles Thain road turns into 21st street, continue on 21st street, you will cross a bridge just before leaving town, then the road turns into highway 12. Stay on highway 12 for about 8 miles then take a left across the bridge to start heading south on highway 95 towards Boise/Grangeville, you will go about 65 miles south on highway 95 towards Grangeville, go through Grangeville and go about another 15 miles to Whitebird, you will cross the large bridge that goes over the town, take the first left just past the bridge, go about ¼ mile down into the town, the road comes to a T, take a right about go about 1.5 miles then take a hard right by a sign that says “Nez Perce National Historic Park, Whitebird Battlefield”. This sign is off on the right side of the road about 20 feet, it has large rock pillars on both sides. Be sure to follow the paved road to the right once you turn, don't cross the cattle guard next to the sign. Immediately after the turn you'll cross a small bridge and start heading up the hill to camp. Go about 10-15 minutes (about 4-5 miles) up the hill, the ranch/lodge is on the right just off the road, there is a large steel gate at the entrance.

FROM BOISE:

At Boise airport head west on I-84 for about 10 miles, then take a right and go north on Eagle road (also highway 55). Go about 5 miles along Eagle road and take a right to go east on Highway 44 bypass, then go a few miles and take a left and head north on highway 55 towards Lewiston/McCall. Then go about 120 miles north on highway 55 until you come to a town called New Meadows, then go about 65 miles to Whitebird, just before the town there is a diner/gas station called Hoot's, about ½ mile past Hoot's you will take a right off of highway 95 just before the bridge that goes over the town of Whitebird. Then go about ¼ mile down into the town, the road comes to a T, take a right about go a few miles then take a right on the road Go about 10-15 minutes (about 4-5 miles) up the hill, the ranch/lodge is on the right just off the road, there is a large steel gate at the entrance.

FROM MISSOULA:

Coming from Missoula airport take a right and head east onto Broadway street, go about a mile until you come to Reserve street (highway 93) and take a right and go south a few miles along reserve until you come to Brooks street (Highway 12), take a right and head out of town along Brooks street (Highway 12), go about 10 miles south on Highway 12 until you come to a town called Lolo, take a right and head west on Highway 12, there will be a big sign saying Lewiston, Id. You will go over Lolo pass and cross the Montana/Idaho border, then it is about 160 miles down Highway 12 until you reach highway 95, you will take a left and start heading south on 95, then follow above directions from Lewiston (underlined portioned only).

FROM SPOKANE:

Coming from Spokane Airport get on I-90 and head east about 5 miles and then take a right and go south on Highway 195, you will go about 100 miles south on Highway 195 until you reach Lewiston, about ¼ mile before Lewiston you take a left and head east on highway 12, then follow directions from Lewiston (underlined portion only).